The Basic Principles of Handball

- Handball is a team sport based on "fair play" principles.
- On court there are two male or female teams playing against each other, both trying to score goals with a handball.
- The team that has scored the most goals when the playing time is over is the winner.
- The winning team is given 2 points. If there is a draw, the two teams are awarded 1 point each.

Technical Facilities

- Different ball sizes are used for different age groups/genders.
- The goal height is 2 metres, the goal width 3 metres.
- The playing time can be varied and is up to 2x30 minutes in official games.

Teams/Players/Team Officials/Referees

- Each team consists of up to 14 players.
On court a team has 6 field players and 1 goalkeeper
- Within each team the player are interchangeable during the game.
- All field players of a team wear identical, coloured uniforms. Goalkeepers wear uniforms that differ from those of the field players.
- Players are not permitted to wear objects that could be dangerous (watches, rings, earrings, necklaces, etc.).
- Up to 4 team officials are responsible for coaching their team.
- 2 referees officiate the game on court in cooperation with the judges' table (timekeeper, scorekeeper).

"Fair play" and Officiating

The beauty of handball is "fair play".

It is the two referees who are in charge of ending the game. Their task is to maintain the "fair play" principle.

Progressive punishment is given to the players who do not follow the rules of "fair play" or violate the rules in any other way.

Throw to (re)start the Game

In handball there are five different throws defined by the rules to (re)start the game, which are the throw off, free throw, goalkeeper throw, 7 metre throw and throw-in.

A 7 metre throw is given when a clear scoring chance is destroyed.

At the beginning of the first and second half time as well as after a goal has been scored a throw-off is taken.
